from Moscow and began a series of discussions with leading SMV directors. A member of this official's entourage was (fnu) Bakin, former Deputy Director of Technsab. Bakin told Technsab director Tarutin that turnover of SMV to Austria will begin shortly after 15 July. Tarutin himself was told to prepare himself for a return to the Soviet Union shortly after 15 August and to cancel immediately all leaves for Austrian 25X1 Technsab employees.

[REDACTED] a minimum of 100,000,000 schillings will be needed to keep the oil fields going during the first two months after the turnover. This amount will cover wages, payment of accrued bills and purchase of needed raw materials. It is hoped that after two months enough money will start to "come in" (payments for oil deliveries, etc.) to ensure a continuation of minimum operation.
